Reason for less export achieved:

The unit stated that, as per their management decision, they were expecting more projects to be moved to India, considering the market situation in their parent company's location in the USA. However, due to the pandemic, there was a global slowdown in business, and most of the clients' contracts couldn't materialize in the USA. As a result, the projects that were supposed to be transitioned to India were reduced.

Reason for less export achieved:

The unit stated that, as per their management decision, they were expecting more projects to be moved to India, considering the market situation in their parent company's location in the USA. However, due to the pandemic, there was a global slowdown in business, and most of the clients' contracts couldn't materialize in the USA. As a result, the projects that were supposed to be transitioned to India were reduced.
